Events coming up:

International Dance Day is on Tuesday, 29th April 2025. It is a global celebration of the art of dance and its universal language. Rooted in the belief that dance transcends cultural boundaries and connects people across the globe, International Dance Day was established by UNESCO to promote the art form's diversity and inclusivity. It's a day to honour the beauty, passion, and expression that dance can bring to our lives.

Information can be found about organisations offering dance and performing arts opportunities in Swindon, in the Service Directory part of the Local Offer website:
