

Who's in Charge? - Topic Homework Term 1

Please find below some ideas for topic homework. Hopefully these ideas will support you in exploring our topic further with your children and give them the opportunity to share with you what they have been learning at school.

Please aim to complete at least 3 pieces over the Term.

Royal Family Research. Draw a picture of the Royal family and label them with their names. Remember your capital letters for proper nouns.	King/ Queen for the day. Imagine you are going to be King or Queen for the day. Write down an itinerary of your royal duties.	Interview the King. You are going to interview the King. Write down 5 questions that you would like to ask him. Remember to finish your question with a question mark.
Palace Building. Build a palace using recycled materials.	Royal Dress Up. Create a royal outfit at home without buying anything new. You could use clothes, blankets, cardboard, scarves, jewellery etc.	Royal Bakery. Make a cake fit for a King. You could practise your measuring skills whilst weighing out the ingredients.
The King's Royal Tour The King is going on a Royal Tour of the UK. List 5 places that he could visit. These could be places that you have already been with your family. You might want to look back over some family photos from when you visited these places and talk about what you saw/ did there.	Nature Walk Go on a walk around your local area. How many different leaves can you find? Find a flower, sketch a picture and label the keywords: flower, leaves and stem.	Plant Observation Plant a seed in a pot and observe its growth over time. Discuss what your seed will need to stay alive with an adult.
